Bank of Montreal Marks Half Century Of Service To Raymond

Next Monday morning the Bank of Montreal's local office will mark the completion of half a century of uninterrupted service to the residents of Raymond and the surrounding district. The office first opened on September 15th, 1902, just one year after Raymond's establishment as a town.

Opened at a time when the town was still in its infancy and consisted of only a few frame stores and residences, the branch was located in a small office in the old Raymond hotel. Among the businesses in town at that time were the Raymond Mercantile Company Limited, King Brothers, general store, Wm. Paris, plumber, Chas. McCarthy, hotel and Kimball Bros., livery. Later Cooper and Stevens opened a general store which remained in operation for a number of years.

A year after the branch was opened, the Ellison Milling and Elevator Company erected a flour mill and the Knight Sugar Co. Ltd., a sugar beet factory. With these new industries an influx of people took place, rapidly increasing the population.

As a community grows, so does its business institutions, and this fact was well borne out by the ever-increasing demand for banking service. And so the B of M moved, some years after first opening, to a two-storey brick building at the south end of Main Street.

In 1946, the bank erected its present attractive brick building on Broadway avenue, right in the heart of the business district.

The part the B of M has been able to play in the growth and development of Raymond has been due, to a great extent, to the succession of capable and community-minded men who have had charge of the local office.

WELL KNOWN MANAGERS

The office was opened under the management of C. S. M. Brown, who two years later, was succeeded by F. D. Anderson, and he, in turn, was replaced by E. S. J. Martin. Later managers have included C. C. Watson, Charles D. Compton, now in charge of the bank's important Regina main office, Reuben Wells, present at East-end, Sask., and A. C. King, who left here in 1950 to take over the B of M's Olds office.

PRESENT MANAGER

James F. Grant, the present manager, has had charge of the local office for the past two years. He entered the service of the bank in his home town of Brandon, Man., in 1915, and later served at numerous branches in western Canada, including Winnipeg main office, Portage la Prairie, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon. He received his first managerial appointment at the bank's Waldron, Sask., office in 1929, and later held similar posts at St. Benedict, Sask., Myram, Rimbey, Yiking, Daysland and Magrath. In April 1950 he came to Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Heninger entertained Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. Knight who is leaving shortly to make her home in the States. Mr. and Mrs. Asel Palmer of Lethbridge and Pearl Heninger of Magrath were the out-of-town guests.

A lovely lunch was served by the hostess during the evening.

Silver Gleaners Honored At Banquet

Pink and white sweet peas accented by silvered wheat decorated the table at the Banquet held Wednesday evening honoring the Silver Gleaners of the Taylor Stake. Mrs. Altha Peterson was in charge of the lovely decorations. After the luscious dinner, prepared under the direction of Dorothy Dahl, Johanne Hill announced the program which followed.

A piano solo was played by Margaret Stone followed by a talk by Mrs. Zettella Taylor on "Happiness". A piano duet was played by Barbara Wing and Margaret Stone before Mrs. Ruth Ackrod's Toast to the Silver Gleaners which was responded to by Arlene Taylor. "Prayer Perfect" was sung by Ladene McBride, Dawn Mendenhall and Margaret Stone after which Mrs. Inez Hicken spoke to the girls on "Choosing a Life's Companion".

There were twenty of the thirty-six Silver Gleaners present for the memorable evening.

C. W. Lamb was a visitor in Calgary last week-end where he attended the Wawanesa Insurance Company Convention.

Mrs. Fanny Litchfield entertained at a dinner party last week in honor of Mrs. Bascom and her mother who were visiting at the Donny Nilsson and Frank Dawley homes recently.

A son, Morris Reed, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hall on August 22nd, at the local hospital.

Kleyn - Hicks Nuptials Solemnized At Stake House

Against a colorful bank of gladioli blooms, marriage vows were repeated recently in the Stake House by Miss Ila Hicks, daughter of Mrs. Gertie Hicks and the late Mr. Hicks, and Hans Kleyn, son of Mrs. A. Kleyn-Hofmeister and the late Mr. Kleyn-Hofmeister of Amsterdam, Holland. Bishop Wm. Jensen officiated and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Emma Dahl.

The bride's gown of lustrous white satin was simply styled with a bustle effect and long train at the back. A dainty veil cascaded from a little dutch cap trimmed in tiny seed pearls and she carried a bouquet consisting of feathered carnations and gardenias centered by an orchid.

Mrs. Hicks chose a black dress accented by a corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen joined the bridal party to receive the guests at the Reception which followed, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Mildred Wood and Mrs. Irene Jensen accepted and arranged the gifts and Mrs. Mary Fairbank presided at the Guest Book. Lincoln Wood and Dean Rolfsen were ushers.

Mrs. Irene Bowden was in charge for the past two years. He entered the service of the bank in his home town of Brandon, Man., in 1915, and later served at numerous branches in western Canada, including Winnipeg main office, Portage la Prairie, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon. He received his first managerial appointment at the bank's Waldron, Sask., office in 1929, and later held similar posts at St. Benedict, Sask., Myram, Rimbey, Yiking, Daysland and Magrath. In April 1950 he came to Raymond.

Before hurrying away on their honeymoon to Waterton, the groom expressed their thanks and appreciations.

Mrs. Kleyn changed to a grey and navy scotch tartan suit with navy accessories and an orchid corsage for their honeymoon trip. They have returned to Raymond where they are visiting the bride's mother before leaving for their home in Chicago.

The Ban Is Lifted

Did things seem any different to you
On the first day of school this year?
Did you notice that even the adults
Occasionally brushed back a tear?
Couldn't you just see the happiness
Shining on everyone's face
As everyone said "Hi!" to their friends
Then flitted from place to place?
The children were much as they always were,
Only more so — I'd say.
'Course everyone was so happy because
The BAN was lifted to-day.

For ever so long our children were
Not allowed to gather at all,
No more swimming — no more shows,
No more Church — not even ball.
They've not had any fun of late,
No hikes — no games, nor such.
Why! there just wasn't anything to do,
Well — not very much.
But now they've gone completely wild
With pent-up energy, you'd say.
However, everyone was excited because
The BAN was lifted today.

Yes, it's been a wonderful day alright,
And one we'll well remember,
Two big moments in our lives
This 8th day of September.
Let us stop in the midst of our ecstasy
To breathe a prayer of thanks
To Him who was so kind to us,
Not one did He take from our ranks.
We do have much to be thankful for
If for school there was a delay
Let's bow our heads and thank the Lord
The BAN COULD be lifted today.

—Norma ZoBell.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Etta Brandley and Mrs. Ellen Winkler were joint hostesses at the Brandley home to the Ladies Literary Club. This meeting was in the form of a Farewell Party for Mrs. Knight — everyone got to know her just a little bit better as they told and listened to stories of her neighborliness and kindness. Mrs. Knight was presented with a Book of Remembrance from her friends, in which a sketch of her life had been written.

Special guests at this very enjoyable party were Mesdames Mabel Hennings, Honnie Heninger, Dot Witbeck, Virginia Holmes, He'sby Aneka, Tilly Boysen, Eva Terry, Jane Brewerton, Inez Hicken and Kate Card.

The Hospital Auxiliary wish to express sincere thanks to the general public who did the buying and to the ladies who did the selling that made the Pencil Tag Day the outstanding success it was.

Welling-Craddock Road To Be Gravelled

At a recent conference held by the Road Committee of the C of C and the Dist. Sup. of the Dept. of Highways, Mr. Bradley, it was disclosed that arrangements are being made to gravel the road from Welling to Craddock this fall.

A meeting with the M.L.A. for this constituency, Leonard C. Halmrast, is scheduled for the near future with the hard-surfacing of the same road to be an item on the agenda.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Ottawa announce the engagement of their daughter Janet Eliza Keating to Thomas Godfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Holmes.

The marriage will take place on September 17, at the L. D. S. Church in Ottawa.

Mrs. Hennie Houghen Recounts Trip To Holland

Mrs. Louie Winters conducted the Ladies Auxiliary to the Legion meeting held Monday evening, at which plans were made for a bazaar to be held on October 11. Each lady was requested to donate one article of sewing and two cooking articles. It was also decided to sell Christmas Cards again this year.

The time was then turned over to Mrs. Alice Court who was in charge of the entertainment; Tim Court and Don Petrak sang a duet with Don accompanying on his guitar, after which they led in some community singing and Mrs. Hennie Houghen gave an interesting talk on her trip to Holland.

Mrs. Mary Jensen won the Door Prize donated by Mrs. Wanda McKean and Mrs. Alma Helgeson's name was drawn from the Membership Pot but as she wasn't present the money was put back for next time.

The tasty lunch was served by Mesdames Mary Jensen and Eileen Phillips.

Town of Raymond

High n' Dry

—by Renae Rasmussen

Ooooo, ah, and oh were the exclamations uttered by the students as they stepped through the heavy doors into the modern new building, on the morning of Sept. 8. Modern fluorescent lights hanging from the low ceiling, shone forth telling us our dream had been realized at last. Here, in reality, was the new 200,000 dollar, senior high, decked out in its attractive dress, waiting for eager, excited, pupils to explore its bright, colorful passages and chambers.

For once the students were a little anxious for fall to roll around, despite its burden of school tasks, for they will seem less difficult and dreary in the fresh surroundings. Perhaps our minds, too, will freshen, and as we explore and use the rooms, we shall explore the opportunities of our studies and use the knowledge gained from their hidden treasures.

Somehow, this year, the girls don't mind wearing dresses instead of jeans; the boys don't miss their huge, heavy, boots, for they are just as "tough" in more gentlemanly types; nor do the farm children begrudge giving up their usual noon lunch of bread and jam for a more substantial, tastier, meal in the school cafeteria. We have left these things to the pupils of Junior High who have taken up their quarters in our old stamping grounds.

However, even a new school cannot drown the ever-surgant spirit of fun-loving, sport-minded, teenagers. We shall have our Seminary, class jokes, parties, elections, "Hi Times" and sports, as long as school itself, continues.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brandley had as their dinner guests on Sunday, Mrs. Brandley's parents Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Gruenwald of Coaldale.

Gough and Smith Principals in September Wedding

On Friday, September 5, Miss DeLores Mae, daughter of Mrs. Madelyn Smith of Del Bonta, became the bride of Gerald D Gough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gough, in the Stake Relief Society Room which was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli blossoms. Bishop Earl Peterson of Cardston, uncle of the bride, officiated. "Because" was sung by Jeanine Jensen during the signing of the Register.

The bride who entered on the arm of Dr Burns Larsen was radiant in a gown styled with a chantilly lace, strapless bodice over which was worn a fitted lace jacket with a pearl-studded collar, and long lily point sleeves. The full tulle over satin skirt was joined to the bodice by pointed insets of lace. Her floor length embroidered tulle veil fell softly from a pearl-studded coronet and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

Bridesmaids, Jean Holmes and Thelma Morgan wore gown of green and pink organdy respectively and carried bouquets of baby 'mums and lilies. Diane and Gloria Gough, flower girls, were in yellow and mauve; carrying nosegays of tiny mixed flowers.

Mrs. Smith chose for her daughter's wedding a black and white taffetta frock to which was pinned a corsage of red roses and the groom's mother was attired in green crepe with a lace tunic accented by a corsage of yellow roses.

Lloyd Ralph was best man and ushers were Wayne Gough and Steve Bartosek.

The guests who called to wish the newly-weds happiness were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matkin of Magrath and Joan Holmes presided at the Guest Book. Barbara Fairbanks and Jazelle Meeks accepted arranged the gifts. After greeting the bridal party the guests were ushered into the luncheon room the partition of which was decorated with a pale green lattice and gladioli. Sweet peas graced the individual tables. Arline Ralph, Lavon and Lavere Robinson, Barbara Christensen and Arlene Taylor, in long dresses, served the delectable lunch which was prepared by members of the Raymond Music Club.

Bill Nalder was Master of Ceremonies for the following program. A solo "O Joy Be Thine" was sung by Laurie Harker after which Betty Evans gave a humorous Reading, followed by two vocal numbers "I'm Yours" and "Too Young" by Sandra Dahl. Etta Brandley gave three short appropriate Readings before Emma Dahl, Ruth Salmon and Gladys Holt sang "Woman In A Shoe", which was followed by "I'll Walk Beside You" by Jeanine Jensen, the concluding number.

For their honeymoon trip to Waterton and Kalspell, Mrs. Gough wore an orchid ribbon suit, to which was pinned white carnations. Purple shoes and purse and grey hat and gloves completed the ensemble.

The newly-weds will live in Raymond, making their home in the Ab Hague suite.

Maxine Piepgrass Honoree At Trouseau Tea

Monday evening between 7 and 10 about twenty-five friends and relatives called at the home of Miss Colleen Ralph, who was the hostess at a Trouseau Tea for Maxine Piepgrass. After her lovely trouseau was viewed each guest presented her with a favorite recipe with which to start her new life. Mrs. Leona Knight and Carol Knight of Lethbridge were out of town guests.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Tuesday was an exciting day for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ball, as that was the day their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cook of Melbourne, Australia arrived via British Commonwealth Pacific Airline. It has been six years since they last saw their daughter but will make up for lost time in the next few weeks while she is with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook plan to make their home in Canada now.

PIONEER BANKING

The forward-looking spirit of the local B of M stems from the earliest traditions of the parent bank, which was formed in 1817. Within a fortnight of its establishment Canada's first bank introduced the branch-banking system. This flexible and trustworthy type of organization has long since proven a mainstay of the nation's relative stability in economic affairs. In its first year, the bank also issued Canada's earliest native currency and became the colonial government's domestic banker.

In the opening up of the west, Bank of Montreal branches pioneered in many frontier settlements. The Bank also played an important part in financing Canada's first transcontinental railway, the Canadian Pacific.

Today there are over 570 B of M offices strategically located in every section of the country, with 65 of them in the province of Alberta. This network, combined with the bank's long-established business connections around the world, enables the Raymond branch to offer its customers a complete banking service for both their personal and business needs. Mr. Grant, the manager, can call immediately on B of M head office departments for any specialized information that is required.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gough and family of Taber were week-end visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gough.

Snow and Sugar

Nature reveals great artistry and symmetry in the making of many useful organic and inorganic materials. The sugar crystal is an hexagonal rhomboid, of varying size, automatically formed whenever the sugar in solution is concentrated to the crystallizing stage. Coarse, medium and fine granulated sugars are controlled in the refining process—otherwise the process in no way changes the sugar made by the plant. Important to remember is this: sugar, whether obtained from the date palm, maple, pineapple, carrot, or the nectar of a flower, has a single chemical formula: C₁₂ H₂₂ O₁₁. Claims for the superiority of so-called "natural sugars" as compared with refined sugars cannot be supported. And as pure as any refined sugar is PURE ALBERTA SUGAR, with the Maple Leaf on the bag.

Canada and the Bank of Montreal have grown up together

Raymond and the B of M have come a long way together . . .

The date was September 15, 1902, and to the small and vigorous community came a new resident — the Bank of Montreal. In those days, Raymond's citizens numbered but 200 odd, and industry was just beginning to appreciate the town's advantages and facilities.

The first B of M branch was located in a small office in the Raymond Hotel and was run by a total staff of four, manager included.

Today, in far more spacious premises, the Bank of Montreal looks back with pride on a half century of progress — on the part it has been able to play in the growth and development of the community — and looks forward to helping write many more chapters in a tale of progress.

Here, as in hundreds of communities, large and small — throughout the length and breadth of Canada — the Bank of Montreal continues to work with Canadians as it has done since the days of its foundation more than 134 years ago.

In hamlets and villages, towns and cities, the Bank of Montreal is still pioneering with the men and women who are making the Canada of tomorrow.
